

Programme

Metrics, Repositories and Social Sciences and Humanities

20th November 2009

Salón de Actos

Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales (CCHS-CSIC)

C/ Albasanz 26-28, 28037 Madrid

Organised by

Proyecto PRACTICE 2008. Filosofía de las tecnociencias sociales y humanas and Laboratorio de Cibermetría, CCHS-CSIC

10:00.

Welcome and presentation

Eduardo Manzano (Director CCHS-CSIC)

Repositories: Between excellence and quality

Jean-Claude Guédon (University of Montréal)

Ranking Web of Repositories; Metrics, results and a plea for a change

Isidro F. Aguillo (CCHS-CSIC)

11:30 Coffee break

Developing metric information services for scholars in Social Sciences and Humanities: The options.

Chris Armbruster (Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences)

Metrics in institutional repositories: Digital.CSIC as a case

Pablo de Castro (CSIC, Universidad Carlos III)

La evaluación mediante el uso: reglas y prácticas

José Luis González Quirós (Univ. Rey Juan Carlos)

14:00 Lunch time

16:00. Afternoon Session

Repositories and folksonomies: how can these tools enhance interdisciplinarity and scientometric studies

Karim Gherab Martín (Harvard University)

Empresas de base cultural: spin-off en el área de las ciencias sociales y las humanidades

César González-Pérez (IEGPS-CSIC)

Enabling and Enhancing Research: Digital Research Infrastructures for the Arts and Humanities

Sheila Anderson (King's College London)